

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 8, 2025

Locals help raise $1.1 mil for underserved students

ONYX & ASH

Tiburon's Toby and Susan Mumford were among those who supported nonprofit 10,000 Degrees at its 'One Amazing Community' fundraising gala, which raised more than $1.1 million to help underserved students.

WHO: 10,000 Degrees

WHEN: April 27.

WHAT: 10,000 Degrees hosted its annual "One Amazing Community" fundraising gala at the Marin Civic Center Exhibit Hall in San Rafael. More than 500 guests came together to celebrate educational equity and raise more than $1.1 million to help students from low-income backgrounds fulfill their dreams of becoming college graduates.

LOCAL CONTRIBUTORS: Attendees included Tiburon residents Susan Blumenthal, Rosalyn Brandt and Tom Cote, Chris and Bruce Brent, Monica Mehra and Clay Armistead, Tina Meinig, Toby and Susan Mumford, and Charan and Sylvia Singh; and Belvedere residents James Campbell and

Adam Gavzer, Sandy Donnell and Justin Faggioli, George Gnos, Sallie Griffith, Nena Hart, Judy and Robert Huret, Steger and Astrid Johnson, Ann and Thomas C. Lacey, Kathy Pearson, Bert and Roxanne Richards, Bill Smith and Ann Aylwin, and Deborah and John Wilton.

BENEFITING: 10,000 Degrees' programs and scholarships, which support students from low-income backgrounds to get to and through college and beyond.

VISIT: 10000degrees.org.

DID YOU KNOW? 10,000 Degrees awarded $8.8 million in scholarships and helped students leverage $58 million in free financial aid last year.